nough to play one of the games.

The diamond was in fit shape for mud Chicago larks, or ball players from Portland, Philadelphia but that did not stop the salaried arms Batteries were so speedy that five double plays and one triple were the result. This breaks all records for the league and is the first time this year a triple has been made on the home grounds. The infields worked to perfection, and the way the ball was thrown around re sembled a ginger-up practice by a team that had just landed the pen-

Bluth Starts a Triple. Bluth started the triple in the seventh. Dowling and Bandelin were both Boston bases when Runkle lined a drive to as the ball was hit. Before they could stop or turn around Bluth had nailed the ball and whipped it to Delmas, who sent it along to Clark without a sec-ond's lost motion. The doubles were all forced runs, Bluth, Tozer and Delmas starting four of them with Clark at the receiving end. Butte butted in for a double herself. Runkle, Huber and Elsey doing the business.

Pitching Staff a Side Issue.

It was strictly a day for the fielders, the pitching staff being a mere side issue. The Elders got through without an error or the least semblance of one. Fly balls and grounders all looked alike to the sorrowing ones. The ore diggers were not slow, either, and the one sinthen went out into left field and Elsey came in from first, Runkle taking Elplace and Hoon playing at short !-The combination worked all right and no misplays resulted.

Batters Fatten Averages.

Bandelin and Thomas officiated in the box and both were hit rather freely The players needed hits to fatten their averages for the winter dope book, and they made a pretty good job of it. Max Muller did the heavy work, getting a three-bagger out of a ball knocked down to the wagon gate.

Yesterday's game winds up the season in the Pacific National league.
Butte and Salt Lake have two postponed games, but as there is no necessity for playing them, it will not be done. The ball players commence to leave for home today, and the sound of the umpire's voice and the rooting of the fans will be heard no more until ept time and it will take at least a The summary:

St. Louis, Sept. 25.—St. Louis and Washington split even in a double-neader And such a game it was. The five or six dyed in the wool fans and one small kid in the tree tops, who have been present at the games of the last series, were all that saw it, but they will be talking about the wind-up all winter long. Rain poured down until near 4 o'clock and it was impossible to play the double-header scheduled; but the five or six fans and one small kid remained until the weather cleared up enough to play one of the games.
